

Draft minutes are not approved until the following Board meeting and are subject to change. Therefore, minutes should not be relied upon until they have been approved.